About an artist/crafter

Jackie & Gill have been friends for many years and have dabbled with all sorts of crafts over time. They now focus on making knitted things such as teddy bears and chickens. They use crafting as their escapism. They joined Forge as an outlet to share their 'makes' and also do some craft fairs, especially on the run up to Christmas.

Call for volunteers

We always have space for new volunteers at Forge. After all we would love to still keep “Forging Ahead” decades from now, so we need all the assistance we can get.
